Quick Listen: Scrip's Five Must-Know Things

by Ian Haydock

Join us for a brief audio tour around the past week's major biopharma industry developments, as reported by Scrip's global team.

This episode includes the big stories around the world for the business week ended 4 December 2020.

On the plate this time are further rapid-fire developments with COVID-19 vaccines, a new corporate alliance for brain disorders, partnering strategy in infectious diseases, and a look at some of the winners of this year's Scrip Awards.
