ASCO 2024 Wrap-Up Podcast

by Alaric DeArment

Scrip reporter Alaric DeArment is joined by the Datamonitor Healthcare oncology analysts to review key highlights from the recent American Society of Clinical Oncology annual meeting.

After the dust settled on the recent American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO) annual meeting, held 31 May-4 June in Chicago, Scrip's Alaric DeArment joined the Datamonitor Healthcare podcast to discuss top highlights from the meeting.

Topics discussed include neoadjuvant treatment of melanoma, non-muscle invasive bladder cancer, multiple myeloma and non-small cell lung cancer – as well as updates on Merus's closely watched MCLA-145, community use of CAR-T and drug shortages.
